Vol. 30.

Boston, June, 1897.

No. 1.

SUMMER.

Always kill fish as soon as they are taken from the water by a sharp blow with a baton or stick on the back of the head.

They keep better, eat better, and are in all respects better than those that suffer just before dying.

The best fishermen in Europe and America know this—the suffering of any animal just before dying always tends to make the meat unwholesome and sometimes poisonous.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

SEVENTY-FOUR.

The fifth of June makes us seventy-four years old and gives us the privilege of drawing another $100 on the annuity we bought of our "Massachusetts Hospital Life Insurance Company" many years ago.

We are sorry to say that our good friend,

Vice-President Hill, receives some letters from people [who perhaps approve the mutilation of horses for life, and the unlimited dissection of dogs, cats and other animals] in which they express substantially their entire willingness that we should visit the Hot Springs of Arkansas for an indefinite period—but on the other hand we are receiving lots of kind letters from good friends in our own and other countries in which they express the hope that we may still have before us many years of active service, and all kinds of happiness both in this world and the next.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

Every kind word you say to a dumb animal or bird will make you happier.

GERMANY.

We see by our Boston papers that the German Emperor proposes to prohibit all Germans from going outside of Germany, except by his royal permission, while he in the meantime runs over to England to attend the yacht races.

He wants them to all stay at home to fight his battles for him in any international row which he may contrive to get them into. It looks as though Germany will have to take this youngster over her knee before long, and by a vigorous application of her maternal slipper, ascertain whether he is a lunatic or a fool.

THE KING OF FRANCE.

"The King of France with 40,000 men, marched up a hill and then marched down again."

In the Greek and Turkish controversy it would seem as though the Greeks [presumably a brave and patriotic people] were led against the thoroughly trained German officers of the Turkish forces by a Prince—who according to our most reliable historians—the newspapers—was little more fit to command than one of those respectable animals from whom in remote ages our illustrious ancestors are said to have descended—and who as a consequence, [after a little skirmishing] ordered a retreat, and then retreated himself with an agility which would have defied pursuit even by our Massachusetts "Ancient and Honorable Artillery."

We know [aside from the newspapers] nothing about this particular Prince, but our impression of Princes in general is that they are better fitted to shoot pigeons from traps—and rabbits that are so penned up they can't get away—and [as Shakespeare puts it] "Caper nimbly in a ladies' chamber to the pleatings of a lute," than to lead armies or engage in any useful occupation.

It is said that at Grant's Fort Donaldson battle a colored cook who ran away at the first fire being asked by his commanding officer what he ran away at the first fire for, replied that he would have ran away before if he had known that they were going to fire, for "cookin" was his "purfession" not "fightin'."

Princes, [generally speaking] we think, do not intend to risk their precious bodies in very dangerous places—not if they know it—or as a Western justice once said, "Not if the court understands herself, and she thinks she do."

PRINCE CONSTANTINE.

In our morning's paper of May 12th we find a high sounding proclamation of the above-named gentleman to the Greek army, calling upon them to defend their sacred soil—and "the honor of their King," etc., and immediately afterwards a statement that the Greek Commissariat had collapsed and the only rations given the soldiers were bread and cheese.

The performances of this valiant gentleman remind us of a little incident said to have occurred in our war of 1812 with Great Britain, when a militia captain approaching the Canada line exhorted his men to fight bravely—and if they must retreat to retreat slowly—and just then a few guns being fired—he added "and as I'm a little lame I guess I'll start now."

Over two hundred thousand copies of "The American Humane Education Society's" prize story "Beautiful Joe" have been already sold.

CUBA AND PRESIDENT MCKINLEY.

Many years ago when our good friend John J. Clarke was Mayor of [our then "sister city"] Roxbury, the fire department of that city [a very different one from that which now exists since Roxbury became a part of Boston] sent in to the Mayor a demand for increased pay, and he called in City Treasurer Dudley [whom lots of the older citizens of Boston well remember] for consultation. Mr. Dudley said in substance, "It can't be done—the citizens are taxed now almost to death and they won't stand it." "Very well," said the Mayor, "then we won't grant it." "Well, I don't know about that," said Dudley, "if we don't grant it these firemen will be 'raising Cain' all over the city; they'll be setting fires." "Well," said the Mayor, "then perhaps we must grant it." "No," said Dudley, "it can't be done." "Well, now, Mr. Dudley," said the Mayor, "what would you advise me to do?" "Well," replied Mr. Dudley, "if I were in your place I think I would 'carefully consider the whole question' and then 'do the best I could under the circumstances.'" And we think that is just about the condition that President McKinley has been in in regard to Cuba. It should be added to this story that sometime afterwards Dudley, who was a bachelor and gotten to be quite an elderly gentleman, concluded to get married, and the city government presented him with some handsome token of their respect and appointed Mayor Clarke to make the presentation. In his address he expressed his deep regret that Mr. Dudley had postponed his marriage so long, but he hoped he "had carefully considered the matter" and would endeavor in every way to promote the happiness of his home by "doing the best he could under the circumstances."

GEO. T. ANGELL.

THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

It is worth while for us to remember that we have on two oceans perhaps the largest continuous sea-coast of any country in the world, and in case of war might be compelled to sustain two enormous navies and enormously costly fortifications not only for our Atlantic, but also for all our Pacific seaports and harbors.

It might be annoying to have fighting little Japan [saying nothing of China] inquiring what business we have to assume control of the Sandwich Islands, away out in the Pacific ocean, three thousand miles from our shores, and whether we have not already about as much territory as we can well take care of at present, and had not better for sometime to come attend strictly to our own affairs at home.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

"WAR IS HELL."

"War is hell" was what General Sherman said, and no man in America knew better about it than he.

Day before yesterday about 1600 Boston boys with guns marched through the streets of Boston—and every daily paper in the city praised them.

Nevertheless, as General Sherman said, "War is hell"—not only to human beings but also to dumb beasts, tens of thousands of which have been left on battle-fields mangled by shot and shell, or in the wildernesses to die of starvation.

Every boy in that procession ought to be taught that "War is hell."

Every teacher in America ought to be required by law to teach every boy and girl in America that "War is hell" and why it is hell. And when our Christian churches do their duty and our "Bands of Mercy" and "Humane Education" get in their perfect work every boy and girl will be.

International difficulties can be settled in international courts just as other difficulties are now settled in other courts, and in place of the enormous armies of war and great battle-ships now maintained, we may have great armies of mercy, on whose banners will be inscribed "Glory to God"—"Peace on Earth"—"Kindness, Justice and Mercy to every living creature."

"War is hell."

GEO. T. ANGELL.

GENERAL SHERMAN AGAIN.

Although General Sherman knew all about war, there were some things with which he was not so familiar, and so when [at our own expense] we went to Washington in the winter of 1880 and '81 to organize The Humane Society there, and two ladies called upon the old General to interest him in the movement, he promptly assured them that all we wanted was "to get an office."

We forgave the old General on the same ground that a Roman Catholic servant girl [mentioned in our Autobiographical Sketches] thought her employer [a Lord Bishop of "The English Church"] might be saved, namely—"because" [as she said] "of your 'ignorance,' sir."

The General did not dream that there was not an office in the gift of the United States government we would have any more thought of accepting than would our Lord and Master of accepting the offer of that other distinguished personage who took him up into a high mountain and offered him all the kingdoms of the earth and the glory thereof.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

THE CROWS AND THE JINGOES.

In two respects the crows differ from the jingoes. (1st) The crows never go to war without "caws." (2nd) The crows are a much wiser folk than the jingoes.

STARVATION IN INDIA.

England has drawn thousands of millions of dollars from India. Why should not England prevent starvation there?

Why should millions on millions of dollars be squandered to support useless Princes and Princesses, and on a Queen's Jubilee—which will be quite likely to hasten the old lady out of this world—when hundreds of thousands of her subjects in London alone hardly know where to get the next meal, and hundreds of thousands [perhaps millions] are dying of starvation in India?

GEO. T. ANGELL.

MUTILATED POLO PONIES.

It is urged upon us that in case of war these rich young polo players, with their mutilated polo ponies, would make capital cavalry; but we remember how this same class of young men in England went down before Cromwell's ironclads like grain before the reaper.

We had lots of excellent cavalry men in our Civil War who, from General Grant down, never rode a mutilated horse—and we suspect that a hundred Russian Cossacks on their long-tailed, kindly-treated horses would make short work with all the polo players in Massachusetts mounted on their mutilated animals.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

AN ARKANSAS EDITOR.

An Arkansas editor, reading that a young lady in New York kneads bread with her gloves on, says: "We need bread with our boots on; we need bread with our pants on; and if our subscribers in arrears don't pay up soon we shall need bread without anything on."

Every unkind treatment to the cow poisons the milk. Throwing stones at her, frightening her, even talking unkindly to her, may poison the milk.

Founders of American Band of Mercy.

GEO. T. ANGELL and REV. THOMAS TIMMINS.

Officers of Parent American Band of Mercy.

GEO. T. ANGELL, President; JOSEPH L. STEVENS, Secretary.

Over twenty-eight thousand branches of the Parent American Band of Mercy have been formed, with probably over a million members.

PLEDGE.

"I will try to be kind to all harmless living creatures, and try to protect them from cruel usage."

Any Band of Mercy member who wishes can cross out the word harmless from his or her pledge. M. S. P. C. A. on our badges means "Merciful Society Prevention of Cruelty to All."

We send without cost, to every person asking, a copy of "Band of Mercy Information" and other publications.

Also without cost, to every person who writes that he or she has formed a "Band of Mercy" by obtaining the signatures of thirty adults or children or both—either signed or authorized to be signed—to the pledge, also the name chosen for the "band" and the name and post-office address [town and State] of the president.

1. Our monthly paper, "OUR DUMB ANIMALS," full of interesting stories and pictures, for one year.

2. Mr. Angell's Address to the High, Latin, Normal and Grammar Schools of Boston.

3. Copy of Band of Mercy Songs.

4. Twelve Lessons on Kindness to Animals, containing many anecdotes.

5. Eight Humane Leaflets, containing pictures and one hundred selected stories and poems.

6. For the President, an imitation gold badge.

The head officers of Juvenile Temperance Associations, and teachers and Sunday school teachers, should be presidents of Bands of Mercy.

Nothing is required to be a member but to sign the pledge, or authorize it to be signed.

Any intelligent boy or girl fourteen years old can form a Band with no cost, and receive what we offer, as before stated.

The prices for badges, gold or silver imitation, are eight cents large, five cents small; ribbon, four cents; song and hymn books, with fifty-two songs and hymns, two cents; cards of membership, two cents; and membership book, eight cents. The "Twelve Lessons on Kindness to Animals" cost only two cents for the whole, bound together in one pamphlet. The Humane Leaflets cost twenty-five cents a hundred, or eight for five cents.

Everybody, old or young, who wants to do a kind act, to make the world happier and better, is invited to address, by letter or postal, GEO. T. ANGELL, Esq., President, 19 Milk Street, Boston, Mass., and receive full information.

Good Order of Exercises for Band of Mercy Meetings:

1—Sing Band of Mercy song or hymn, and repeat the Pledge together. [See Melodies.]

2—Remarks by President, and reading of Report of last meeting by Secretary.

3—Readings, "Angell Prize Contest Recitations," "Memory Gems," and anecdotes of good and noble sayings and deeds done to both human and dumb creatures, with vocal and instrumental music.

4—Sing Band of Mercy song or hymn.

5—A brief address. Members may then tell what they have done to make human and dumb creatures happier and better.

6—Enrollment of new members.

7—Sing Band of Mercy song or hymn.

KIND AND NOBLE EXAMPLE.

On this April 28th we are made glad by receiving for the permanent fund of our Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals a bond worth over $1600, left to our M. S. P. C. A. by Mrs. Wm. S. Eaton, who, during her lifetime, was one of our best friends.

"BLESSED ARE THE MERCIFUL."

We have recently had hung in our principal office [in a large frame and conspicuous position] the names of those who have kindly remembered our two Societies in their wills.

When we get a building we intend to have them so engraved in it as to last through the centuries.

SAMPSON AND WALDO.

We are indebted to Our Best Words, of Shelbyville, Illinois, for the above cut of two dogs, Sampson and Waldo, who saved their mistress, Mrs. Ada H. Kepley, of Effingham, Illinois, when knocked down by a masked man concealed in her house.

INVITATIONS—NINETY DAYS.

We want to live ten years longer to carry out very important work, but to do this must decline a vast deal of work of lesser importance.

If we should accept the invitations coming to us to address audiences and write letters for the press and letters to be read to "Band of Mercy" and other meetings, it is quite possible that we might kill ourself in ninety days.

Very recently we have received [among others] earnest invitations to address three thousand people [perhaps more] at the New York Chautauqua—also a large audience at Nashville, Tennessee—also our Emerson School of Oratory in Boston [the largest in this country]—also a school in New Jersey, near New York, for which we were offered $50, and have been obliged to decline them all, and say to those outside the State that, while we have never permitted ourself to receive a dollar in our life for any address north, south, east or west, we could not go, even if offered a thousand.

In regard to writing letters for the press and to be read at meetings, we have the same difficulty. Some time since we wrote one for a New York daily of over five hundred and fifty thousand circulation, but felt compelled to decline the editor's kind request to write another for the same paper.

The fact is that, having now reached the age of seventy-four, if we are to continue our work ten years longer it can only be done by taking the greatest care, and the work has now become so large and widely extended that no small amount of money to be given to it would be the slightest compensation for taking any risk of ending it.

Thanking our numerous friends for their kind invitations and wishing we could accept them all,

I am, very gratefully,

GEO. T. ANGELL.

THE SOMERSWORTH BANK ROBBERY.

IMPORTANT TO BANKERS AND MANY OTHERS.

The following, which appeared in the Boston Daily Record of April 20, is important to bankers and many others throughout our country:

To the Editor of the Record:

Kindly permit me to say that the right kind of a dog might have prevented the robbery of the Somersworth bank and the murder of its cashier.

Some years ago I was introduced to the richest banker in Ashland, Wisconsin. He was alone in his bank. I suggested and urged upon him the importance of having in his bank a good revolver and a good dog. He did not take my advice. A few weeks later men entered his bank, put a revolver to his head, robbed his bank, shut him up in his own vault, locked the door and the door of the bank and escaped. His wife happened to know the combination of the lock and his life was saved, though when taken out of the vault he was nearly dead from suffocation.

I think the increase of murders and outrages in this country, and the use of bicycles by criminals, will soon make it necessary for persons in solitary and exposed places to keep powerful unmuzzled dogs; also for police authorities to employ dogs to track and pursue criminals.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

OUR DUMB ANIMALS.

Boston, June, 1897.

ARTICLES for this paper may be sent to GEO. T. ANGELL, President, 19 Milk St.

BACK NUMBERS FOR DISTRIBUTION.

Persons wishing Our Dumb Animals for gratuitous distribution can send us five cents to pay postage, and receive ten copies, or ten cents and receive twenty copies. We cannot afford larger numbers at this price.

TEACHERS AND CANVASSERS.

Teachers can have Our Dumb Animals one year for twenty-five cents.

Persons wishing to canvass for the paper will please make application to this office.

Our American Humane Education Society sends this paper this month to the editors of about twenty thousand newspapers and magazines.

OUR AMBULANCE

Can be had at any hour of the day or night by calling Telephone 357, South Boston.

Horse owners are expected to pay reasonable charges.

In emergency cases of severe injury, where owners are unable to pay, the ambulance will be sent at the expense of the Society.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND REMITTANCES.

We would respectfully ask all persons who send us subscriptions or remittances to examine our report of receipts, which is published in each number of our paper, and if they do not find the sums they have sent properly credited, kindly notify us.

If correspondents fail to get satisfactory answers please write again, and on the envelope put the word "Personal."

My correspondence is now so large that I can read only a small part of the letters received, and seldom long ones. GEO. T. ANGELL.

We are glad to publish this month one thousand and seventeen new branches of our Parent Band of Mercy, making a total of twenty-eight thousand six hundred and eighty-six.

HEART CULTURE.

Under this title comes to us a text-book of 272 pages, for teaching kindness to animals in schools, prepared with care by Emma E. Page, organizer and lecturer for the Department of Mercy of "The Woman's Christian Temperance Union," Olympia, Washington, and published by the Whitaker & Ray Co. of San Francisco. It has questions like our "Twelve Lessons on Kindness to Animals," contains much valuable information, and we hope may accomplish much good.

"Did you go to 'The Horse Show,' Mr. Angell?" "No, it is a painful sight for us to see mutilated horses—mutilated for life. We know how they will have to suffer before they die."

VOTE OF THANKS.

The following vote of thanks passed unanimously at the annual meetings of our American Humane Education Society and Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, March 30, was omitted by mistake from our May paper, in which it should have appeared:

Voted, That we desire to express for ourselves and in behalf of those whom we represent, our profound gratitude and thanks to all our kind friends who have during the year, by contributions or otherwise, aided our humane work.

ALL THE HELP WE CAN GET, BOTH HUMAN AND DIVINE.

A lady says to us this morning: "I am glad to see that Mr. John Foster has left your Society in his will $5000." "Yes," we replied, "so are we; but we only wish that we could have it now instead of having to wait perhaps two years or more for the settlement of Mr. Foster's estate." For in our never-ending battle with dog fighters, cock fighters, college rowdies and Congressional Jingoists—and the rich fellows who cut off their horses' tails, and the vivisectionists that cut up dogs and cats [and what other animals the Lord only knows], and some of whom we are afraid would be glad to cut us up, too—and all the great hosts of cruelty who are inspired by the Infernal Intellect—and our efforts to establish our "Bands of Mercy" and carry our humane education into the schools all over this continent [and as far as possible over the world], we need all the help we can get, both human and Divine.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

TO EDUCATE THE BRAINS.

Millions are poured into our colleges and universities to educate the brains of America, while almost nothing is done to educate the heart.

AMONG LARGER SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Among the larger recent subscriptions for Our Dumb Animals we are happy to find nearly five hundred from the city of Rochester, New York, and to quote the following from editorial in The Rochester Daily Herald:

"Editor Angell is an incisive writer, sometimes. Here is a quotation from his pen, published over his signature in the April number of his paper: 'The college riots and acts of savage barbarism almost constantly coming to our table seem to indicate that large numbers of students in a large number of our (Protestant) colleges and universities, entering with very little humanity, graduate [under the influence of the scientific teachings received there] with none whatever.'"

COLLEGE GRADUATES ON BLACKWELL'S ISLAND.

The New York Times says there are fifteen college graduates in prison stripes on Blackwell's Island. Judging from the accounts of rowdiness in our American colleges constantly coming to our table there ought to be at least fifty college undergraduates there.

We have in this morning's paper an account of a fight of about 150 freshmen and sophomores on the Campus of the University of Pennsylvania, in which few escaped bruises, and one Japanese student was beaten and trampled into insensibility.

On the same morning comes to our table, that ten yelling Harvard students attacked a Boston policeman at about 2.30 A. M., and by the aid of other policemen four of them were put in the lock-up—also that at Rutgers College, New Brunswick, New Jersey, two freshmen, while walking in the evening, were seized and gagged by sophomores, and carried off in a covered grocery wagon which contained two cans of green paint, the sophomores proposing to strip the freshmen and cover them with green paint.

And here is another about Illinois College:

"Miss Della Rodenbaugh, in company with a freshman, was about to enter the hall when chemicals were thrown upon them and the young lady will lose her eyesight as a result. The sophs were finally dispersed by the fire department, which turned several streams of water on them."

A good lady told the celebrated Doctor Johnson that she could not marry him because one of her uncles was hung; to which the Doctor replied, that though he was not aware that any of his uncles had ever been hung, several of them ought to have been.

Under our present education the same seems likely to be truly said some day of a good many of the undergraduates in not a few of our Colleges and Universities. GEO. T. ANGELL.

FEMALE COLLEGES.

We are astonished at evidence that has recently come to us in regard to some of the girls in one of our most prominent Protestant female colleges, who get drunk, use profane language and imitate, so far as possible, the vices of a similar class of young men in our male colleges. It behooves parents to be very careful where they send their girls to be educated.

COLLEGE OUTRAGES.

We learn from Donahoe's Magazine that there are in the United States two hundred and eighteen Roman Catholic Universities, Colleges and Seminaries, and there has never to our knowledge been a single case of student outrage or rowdiness in a single one of them like those constantly occurring in our Protestant institutions of learning.

PRINCETON COLLEGE.

We see in our daily papers that Princeton students stole from a great duck farm the other night several hundreds of tame ducks and drove them into President Cleveland's front yard so that he might have the fun of shooting them.

Now [suggesting that it is a question which is more desirable as a residence, the vicinity of one of our Protestant colleges or of a small-pox hospital] it is proper to add that while ex-President Cleveland has found his fun in shooting, wounding and killing ducks, ex-President Harrison has preferred shooting deer up in the Adirondacks by torch-light when they come down to the lake for water, and would-be President Bryan thought it quite good fun to shoot a tame deer which stood quietly looking at him in one of the public parks of St. Louis;—all of which shows the importance of humane education, which would make them more to resemble such men as Abraham Lincoln and General Grant, who, so far as we are informed, never shot anything for the fun of wounding and killing it. GEO. T. ANGELL.

"One of the greatest dangers of our country to-day comes from its multi-millionaires."

Let the sum each can hold be limited to two millions of dollars—after that all to go for the public benefit, and every one who obtains two millions will be perfectly satisfied to stop there, and give others a chance, and this everlasting struggle to accumulate more than anybody else will, so far as our country is concerned, come to an end.

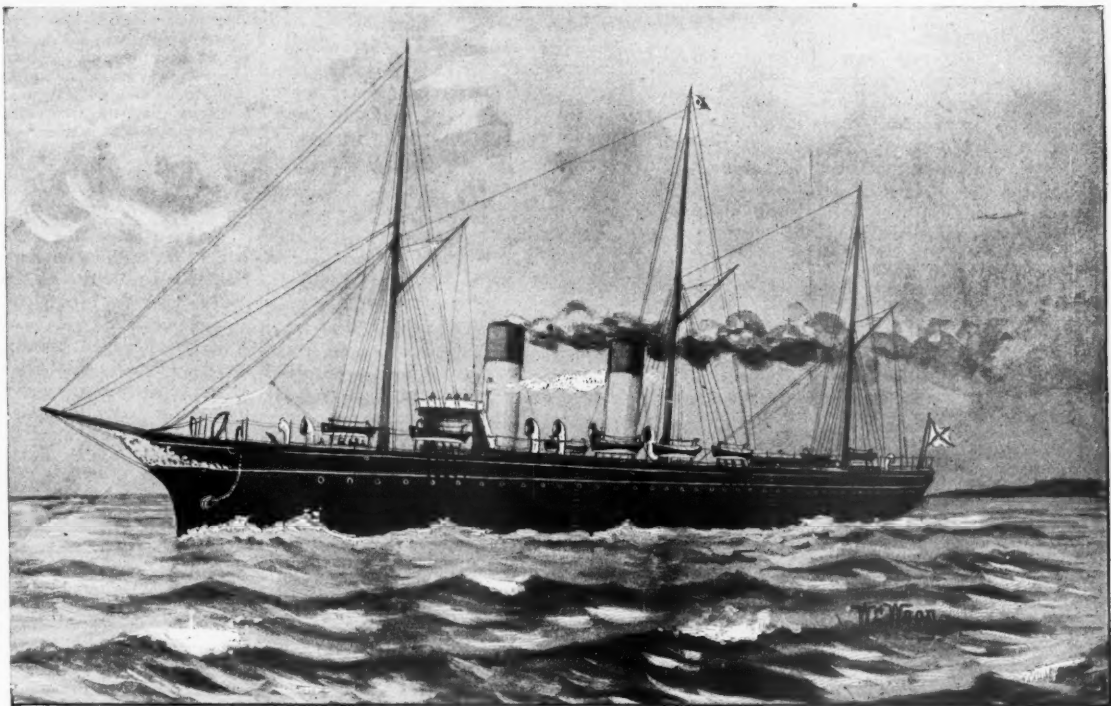

GEO. T. ANGELL.

PLACARDS FOR PROTECTION OF BIRDS.

We have been sending out to be posted in every city and town in Massachusetts placards offering $10 and $5 prizes for evidence to convict of violation of our laws enacted for the protection of birds and the eggs in their nests.

THE HUMANE KILLING OF ANIMALS.

We have been sending to our agents and police authorities, and newspapers, in every city and town of our State, full directions for the humane killing of horses, dogs and cats.

"A Life on the Ocean Wave,
A Home on the Rolling Deep."

A KIND FRIEND.

On this April 27th a kind friend sends us a check to aid in distributing our Spanish "Black Beauty" in Spanish-American countries, and expresses a wish that those who read "Black Beauty" would give us donations to aid in sending it to the Spanish-speaking countries.

Of course we should be exceedingly glad to do this, though we must not forget the tremendous demand for humane literature in our own country [where we had over 10,000 murders last year] and to properly meet which would require a hundred and I might say a thousand times the present funds of our American Humane Education Society.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

ORDERS FOR LITERATURE.

In this one morning's mail we have letters ordering our literature sent to Mexico, New Mexico, Palermo, Sicily, Rome, Italy, and Yokohama, Japan (April 20th).

OUR "BAND OF MERCY" ORGANIZERS.

Since our last monthly report our Western organizer, Mr. Hubbard, has organized (101) new "Bands," our Eastern Massachusetts organizer, Mr. Leach, (160) and our Western Massachusetts organizer, Mrs. Elwell, (57).

A WISE RULE.

Among the rules of a New York livery stable where the animals of many wealthy men are kept, are the following: "No man will be employed who drinks intoxicating liquors. No man shall speak loud to any of the horses, or in the stable where they are. Horses of good blood are nervous, and loud, excited conversation is felt by every horse who hears it, and keeps them all nervous and uneasy. No man shall use profane language in the hearing of horses."

NEW ZEALAND.

We are glad to inform our readers that the work of forming our "Bands of Mercy" has now been earnestly begun in the schools of New Zealand, several having been already formed, and with a good prospect of their wide extension in that country.

COLOMBO, CEYLON.

We are glad to receive on this April 26th a letter from the General Secretary of the Parent "Band of Mercy" formed in Colombo, Ceylon, in which he announces that they are holding regular meetings, and propose to establish branches all over the Island of Ceylon.

LUCKNOW, INDIA.

We were glad to receive on May 12th a copy of "Black Beauty," in Hindustani, printed at Lucknow, India, with funds specially given to our American Humane Education Society for that purpose.

TRINIDAD, WEST INDIES.

We are glad to receive on May 18th an order for quite a large amount of our "Band of Mercy" literature, to be sent to Trinidad, West Indies.

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI.

We are glad to report lots of good work in Kansas City, Missouri, where they are expecting to establish "Bands of Mercy" in all their schools.

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS.

We are glad to receive from Little Rock, Arkansas, a request for humane literature.

A tramp calling upon a lady the other day for a dinner, she offered to give it to him if he would saw some wood in the yard, to which he replied that he would be glad to oblige her, but being a kleptomaniac was afraid he should steal the saw.

MAJOR-GENERAL CHAMBERLAIN, FORMERLY PRESIDENT OF BOWDOIN COLLEGE.

No General of our Civil War is more widely known and esteemed by Presidents of Colleges and the literary men of America than General Chamberlain. We are glad to receive from him, just before going to press, a most kind letter dated Brunswick, Me., May 20th, in which he says, among other good things, "The work you are doing on many lines has an important effect on humanity."

Our Dumb Animals is one of the most interesting papers I read—and I read the whole of every number. It cannot fail to be of great usefulness, in far-reaching ways, wherever it goes.

I went to Fort Kent, on the borders of Canada, last winter, to address the pupils of the training school there, and was struck when I faced those earnest young spirits, to see on the breasts of many of them the star of your "Band of Mercy." Then I observed that the noble lady who is the principal assistant there, wore on her own breast that badge of love and honor.

I believe our people will understand and appreciate the great education of character which you are so steadfastly promoting. Sincerely yours,

JOSHUA L. CHAMBERLAIN.

KIND WORDS.

[From the president of our Boston Emerson School of Oratory, the largest in this country].

"I wished the inspiration of your presence, and a few words of the divine work to which you have given your life, but as this could not be, I did the best I could in speaking of it to the school before the distribution of your publications, which were eagerly received."

Praying that your life may long be spared to be a benediction to every living creature, I am, with profound gratitude and admiration for all that you have done and are doing,

Sincerely yours,

CHARLES WESLEY EMERSON.

Always kill a wounded bird or other animal as soon as you can. All suffering of any creature, just before it dies, poisons the meat.—GEO. T. ANGELL.

A FRENCH GUILLOTINE IN CLEVELAND, OHIO.

Our readers will remember the editorial under the above head, which we published last month in Our Dumb Animals. We are glad to find it republished in full in so influential a paper as the Rochester (New York) Daily Times, with the following editorial comment:

"Perhaps Mr. Angell takes an extreme view of what would be the ultimate results of such education as he portrays and condemns. But there can be no question that its tendency is brutalizing and a menace to society. Having lived many years in Cleveland, Ohio, we are not prepared to believe that its teachers, people or school children are peculiarly cruel or heartless, yet the limited practice of vivisection in the schools of that city have borne pernicious fruit. The writer has on a number of occasions come across in vacant lots the skeletons of frogs as they were left by school boys of Cleveland, tacked to miniature crosses, on which they had doubtless been crucified in cruel and sacrilegious sport.

Vivisection in the schools tends in all such depraved and greswome directions. It is wholly unnecessary and almost worthless as an educational expedient. Under humane restrictions vivisection may have a place in the medical college or the laboratory, but it should be strictly excluded from every common school in the United States."

WHAT OUR GREAT BATTLE AT THE STATE HOUSE WAS ABOUT.

It was called to our attention that tens of thousands of dumb animals—[and perhaps hundreds of thousands]—whom we are bound to protect, were being experimented upon in American laboratories.

So, in behalf of our American Humane Education Society we paid $250 for the best essay that could be written in the world against—and $250 more for the best essay that could be written in favor of vivisection—and then we had them bound together, and sent them out by thousands to all the physicians of Massachusetts—and many elsewhere.

Then we were told that thousands of these creatures had been and were being experimented upon in our own State of Massachusetts; and we learned from an address given by perhaps the most eminent surgeon in New England, Dr. Henry J. Bigelow, before the Massachusetts Medical Society, that this experimentation was terribly cruel—and that no important useful fact had ever come from it by experiments in Massachusetts—and that it ought to be prohibited by law.

Then we went up to the State House and asked simply and only that some respectable physician or physicians, graduate or graduates of a reputable Massachusetts Medical College, should be permitted, in our behalf, to be present in the laboratories of these vivisectors, simply to see and inform us whether the laws of Massachusetts for the protection of animals, which it was our duty to enforce, were being violated.

As the readers of our paper know—nothing we have ever undertaken at the State House has brought down upon us such a tremendous battle. We think every member of the Legislature was lobbied—eminent counsel were employed to fight us—pamphlets and tracts were sent out widely over our city and State—the President of Harvard University, with a great staff of helpers, appeared against us at the hearings, and Harvard University paid the bills—and not content with beating us at the State House, and shutting out any physician who might sympathize with us from admittance to any of these laboratories [where, so far as we have been informed, there has never been discovered a single new fact of any use to humanity], these vivisectors have been since most earnestly at work to punish us for having dared to attempt to make an investigation—by endeavoring to prevent our Societies from receiving any more gifts to aid us in the protection of dumb animals from cruelty. It has been a great and fearful battle, but we believe with the poet, that—

"Right is right since God is God;
And right the day must win;
To doubt would be disloyalty,—
To falter would be sin."

GEO. T. ANGELL.

THAT DOCTOR'S LETTER.

That doctor's letter that we wrote about in May Our Dumb Animals is bringing us a golden harvest of kind wishes from our friends and the press in various parts of our own country and the British Provinces. Here are three [from the press] just placed on our table:

(1) "Mr. Angell has probably done more to prevent suffering to dumb animals than any other man, etc. Long life and unlimited power to him." (2) "Mr. A. is doing a noble work. Our Dumb Animals is a publication that should be a regular visitor to every family in the land." (3) "The animal creation will never know how much it owes to Mr. A. and his paper, Our Dumb Animals. Thousands of domestic animals have lived happier lives and died more humane deaths because of his efforts in their behalf."

It is not only through the press that we are getting our harvest.

We have received, since our publication of that letter, a number of liberal gifts from friends who have been interested in reading it. Here is one:

GEORGE T. ANGELL: May 13th, 1897.
Dear Sir: I herewith enclose a check of $20, being double the subscription of the Boston physician for this year, he having withdrawn his "on account of your position in regard to experimentations on animals." I double the subscription he paid for precisely the same reason.

Vivisection is the worst thing in the world. It is diabolical.

Respectfully,

A PHILADELPHIAN, A.I.L.L.

Here is another from one of Boston's best known editors:

DEAR MR. ANGELL: I have read with great satisfaction your signed editorial, "$10,000 given us" [about the doctor who withdraws his subscription, etc].

It is not only most delightful reading but speaks volumes for the success of your work.

Yours cordially.

And here is another from a good friend in Virginia:

When that Boston physician sent you his letter of excommunication, was not a great flock of angels sent right down, clustering all around and almost burying you with blessings? I wish I had been there when you lifted your head above them and sang—

"Praise God from whom all blessings flow, Praise Him all creatures here below!"

I am singing it now. Your whole great scattered choir of friends will sing it, as the news comes in.

And here is another from a Washington, D. C. lady, on the same subject, closing:

"Accept my congratulations for the past and my most heartfelt prayers for your future welfare."

PUBLISH THE DOCTOR'S NAME.

We are asked by one of our editorial friends to publish the name of the doctor who has cut us off from his $10 annual subscription, on account of our interference in regard to the vivisection of living animals.

No, we do not care to give it. We don't believe the doctor is himself a vivisector, and we know the tremendous pressure which is being brought to bear by the vivisectors on all they can influence, to give no more money for the prevention of cruelty to dumb animals—and all because we simply asked permission that educated and respectable physicians might be permitted to visit their laboratories and see whether the laws, which it is our duty to enforce, are or are not being there violated.

We do not believe that we shall be permitted, in the long run, to lose anything for attempting to do our duty in this matter. GEO. T. ANGELL.

A WILL WORTH THE ATTENTION OF COLLEGE PRESIDENTS.

We have just read a last will and testament which, after kindly remembering various charities and our "American Humane Education Society" by the gift of ten thousand dollars, bequeaths a large sum to one of our leading American colleges, on condition that no vivisection whatever shall ever be practised in any of its departments, "and if it be found at any time in the future that this condition shall have been violated, this bequest shall be forfeited and shall be paid over by said Board of Trustees to 'The American Humane Education Society,' of Boston, of which Geo. T. Angell is now President."

VIVISECTION.

[Extract from the annual address before the Massachusetts Medical Society, by Dr. Henry J. Bigelow, Professor of Surgery in Harvard University. Published in Our Dumb Animals, Jan., 1872.]

"How few facts of immediate considerable value to our race have of late years been extorted from the dreadful sufferings of dumb animals—the cold-blooded cruelties now more and more practised under the authority of science! The horrors of vivisection have supplanted the solemnity, the thrilling fascination of the old unetherealized operation upon the human sufferer."

"I have heard it said that 'somebody must do this.' I say it is needless. Nobody should do it. Watch the students at a vivisection. It is the blood and suffering, not the science, that rivets their breathless attention. If hospital service makes young students less tender of suffering, vivisection deadens their humanity and begets indifference to it."

"The reaction which follows every excess will, in time, bear indignantly upon this. Until then it is dreadful to think how many poor animals will be subjected to excruciating agony. As one medical college after another becomes penetrated with the idea that vivisection is a part of modern teaching, and that, to hold way with other institutions, they, too, must have their vivisector, their mutilated dogs, their guinea-pigs, their rabbits, their chamber of torture and of horrors to advertise as a laboratory."

Was there a more eminent surgeon in Boston or New England a few years ago than Dr. Henry J. Bigelow? EDITOR.

WHAT A GODSEND IT WOULD BE.

If instead of butchering and cutting up cats in our public schools the children could only be taught about the lead pipe poisons and other lead poisons, tin can poisons, arsenic poisons, adulterated and unwholesome foods and drinks, the danger of illuminating and coal gas, the importance of pure air and sunlight and proper exercise, and how prevention is a thousand times more important than cure, what a Godsend it would be to the coming generations.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

Cases investigated by our Boston Officers in April.

Whole number dealt with, 518; animals taken from work, 93; horses and other animals mercifully killed, 161.

VIVISECTION.

I would like to know, Mr. Angell [as nearly as may be], your personal views in regard to vivisection.

Answer—My view is (1) that it should never be permitted in any other school except medical schools; (2) that in medical schools animals should never be subjected to torture; and (3) that all medical schools should be open at all times to the inspection of all physicians of good standing in their profession.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

PREMATURE BURIALS.

We are glad to receive on this May 17th, from Col. Edward P. Vollum, M. D., formerly medical inspector of the United States army but now stopping at Dresden, Germany [care of Robert Thode & Co., Bankers], an interesting letter that there is a very active and influential society now at work in England for the prevention of premature burials, and containing a form of request to be signed by all persons interested that the society shall make sure that the body of the signer shall be neither buried nor cremated until two independent medical examinations have certified that putrefaction, the only infallible sign of actual death, has commenced, and directing that fees named for London, and for country places, shall be paid to the association for its services in carrying out the request, one copy of the request to be deposited with the association, another with a trusted member of the family, and another retained by the signer himself or herself.

We wish there were just such a society in Boston to-day.

Col. Vollum writes that there is a medical commission on the subject now in session at Turin, Italy, "on account of some living burials and narrow escapes in high quarters not long since," also that the Czar of Russia and His Highness Count Karnice, the Czar's Chamberlain, are taking much interest in the subject.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

IN TIME TO PREVENT BURIAL.

SEYMOUR, Ind., April 27.—On Saturday afternoon John Waggoner, aged 85 years, and living near Freetown, was supposed to have died of old age. His physician pronounced him dead, and relatives of the family were telegraphed, and arrived on Sunday for the funeral. On Sunday afternoon the body showed signs of life. Yesterday slight breathing was noticeable, and this morning he had sufficiently recovered to talk to the family.

New York Sun, April 28.

A GOOD PHYSICIAN.

We are glad to receive from Dr. N. W. Rand of Monson, Mass., a remittance of $10, with a letter closing, "Your Society represents the noblest work in the world and I wish every dollar I send were a thousand."

OUR SUBWAY.

In consideration of the terrible work that the subway is making in some of our streets, a friend reminds us that what we said in Our Dumb Animals some months ago is deserving of republication, namely—that a good mother said to her daughter that it was a terrible thing to get married, to which the daughter replied, "Yes, mother, but it's a terrible thing not to."

GRANT'S HUMANITY.

[From "Campaigning with Grant," in The Century.]

"Rawlins rode with the General at the head of the staff. As the party turned a bend in the road, near the crossing of the Totopotomoy, the General came in sight of a teamster whose wagon was stalled in a place where it was somewhat swampy, and who was standing beside his team, beating his horses brutally in the face with the butt-end of his whip, and swearing with a volubility calculated to give a sulphurous odor to all the surrounding atmosphere. Grant's aversion to profanity and his love of horses caused all the ire in his nature to be aroused by the sight presented. Calling to an officer of the escort, he said, 'Take this man in charge, and have him tied up to a tree for six hours, as a punishment for his brutality.' He loved a horse, so much so as to avoid race courses, which he never attended when it could be avoided, because of the cruelty to the horses."

How we do wish that the men who mutilate their polo ponies and other horses for life, and attend and support these gambling horse races, had more of the spirit of Abraham Lincoln and General Grant.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

A PRESCRIPTION WORTH $1000.

A prescription which may be worth $1000 to some of our readers is this: During 1897, try every day to see how many human beings and dumb animals you can make happier by some kind act or kind word.

JINGOES.

What a splendid thing it would be if all the senatorial and other Jingoes, who seem to be so anxious to get our American people into a war with somebody about something, would only emigrate to some far off island where under a Jingo flag they could establish a Jingo Government and undertake in their own sweet Jingo way to conquer the world.

It would be a mighty good riddance of very bad rubbish.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

KINDNESS.

DIDN'T KNOW HER OWN CHILD.

A good lady, who sent us an article sometime since for Our Dumb Animals, wrote us that when it came back she didn't know her own child.

We have just taken from our table a book published for use of school children, which tells them that we once saw a cow tied to a tree on Boston Common, tangled up with a rope—that we cut the rope—and the cow put her head against our shoulder, etc., etc.

Now the facts are, (1) that we never saw a cow on Boston Common in our whole life, (2) that we never cut a rope on Boston Common; and (3) that no cow on Boston Common ever leaned her head on our shoulder.

The real facts from which these mythological statements were taken will be found in our published address to the Boston High, Normal, Latin and Grammar Schools and differ almost as materially from the above as a horse chestnut from a chestnut horse.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

DIDN'T KNOW IT WOULD SHOOT BOTH WAYS.

We have just seen a funny picture. Small boy thought he would play a joke on his mother by telling her he had two holes in his new trousers, but before he could explain that the two holes were where he put his legs in, the old lady had him over her knee and was vigorously impressing on his under-sitting the importance of taking better care of his new clothes.

The question is asked us, "What is the circulation of Our Dumb Animals?"

Answer—Regularly between 50,000 and 60,000, and sometimes it has been from 100,000 to 200,000.

Our Dumb Animals GOES EACH MONTH

In the State to

All members of our two Humane Societies. Several thousands of business firms and men. All Massachusetts clergy, Protestant and Roman Catholic. All Massachusetts lawyers, physicians, bank presidents and cashiers, postmasters, school superintendents, large numbers of writers, speakers and teachers through the State. About 500 of the Society's agents in almost every Massachusetts city and town.

"Bands of Mercy" through the State. Many subscribers and others through the State. The Boston police. The Massachusetts legislature. Hundreds of coachmen, drivers and teamsters. The editors of all Massachusetts newspapers and other publications. Many newspaper reporters.

Outside the State.

All our Humane Societies throughout the entire world. Large numbers of subscribers in our own and foreign countries. Thousands of our Bands of Mercy in our own and other countries. Members of our National Congress. Presidents of all American Colleges and Universities north of Mexico. Writers, speakers, teachers, and many others in various States and Territories. The editors of about twenty thousand American publications, including all in our own country and British America.

Of these about twenty thousand we have good reasons for believing that not less than nineteen thousand, and perhaps more, are read either by editors or by their wives and children.

"The Humane Horse Book," compiled by George T. Angell, is a work which should be read by every man, woman and child in the country. Price, 5 cents.—Boston Courier.

Our last edition of "The Strike at Shane's" was 50,000. Our last edition of "Hollyhurst," 20,000.

"LIGHT TO BENEFIT MANKIND."

For this valuable paper written by a New York Vice-president of our American Humane Education Society—gratuitously circulated by American Humane Education Society—write

GEO. T. ANGELL, President,
19 Milk Street, Boston.

DON'T FORGET.

In hiring a herd, coupe, or other carriage never forget to look at the horses and hire those that look the best and have no docked tails. When we take a herd we pick out one drawn by a good horse, tell the driver not to hurry, but take it easy, and give him five or ten cents over his fare for being kind to his horse. We never ride behind a dock-tailed horse.

PRIZE ESSAYS.

Send for prize essays published by Our American Humane Education Society on the best plan of settling the difficulties between capital and labor, and receive a copy without charge.

IS IT CRUEL?

Is it cruel to keep a horse locked up in a stable without exercise?

Answer: Just as cruel as it would be to keep a boy, or girl, or man, or woman in the same condition.

If to this is added solitary confinement without the company of other animals then the cruelty is still greater.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

PRIZES $675.

In behalf of The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals I do hereby offer (1) $100 for evidence which shall enable the Society to convict any man in Massachusetts of cruelty in the practice of vivisection.

(2.) $25 for evidence to convict of violating the recently-enacted law of Massachusetts against vivisections and dissections in our public schools.

(3.) $100 for evidence to convict any member of the Myopia, Hingham, Dedham, Harvard or Country Clubs, of a criminal violation of law by causing his horse to be mutilated for life.

(4.) $50 for evidence to convict anyone in Massachusetts of a violation of law by causing any horse to be mutilated for life by docking.

(5.) Twenty prizes of $10 each, and forty prizes of $5 each, for evidence to convict of violating the laws of Massachusetts by killing any insect-eating bird or taking eggs from its nest.

GEO. T. ANGELL, President.

OUR PRIZE STORY PRICES.

Black Beauty in paper covers, 6 cents at office, or 10 cents mailed; cloth bound, 25 cents each at office, or 30 cents mailed.

Hollyhurst, Strike at Shane's, Four Months in New Hampshire, also Mr. Angell's Autobiography, in paper covers, 6 cents each at office, or 10 cents mailed; cloth bound, 20 cents each at office, or 25 cents mailed.

Beautiful Joe at publishers' price, 60 cents at office, or 72 cents mailed. Cheaper edition, 25 cents; mailed, 30 cents. Both editions cloth bound.

Postage stamps are acceptable for all remittances.

FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION.

To those who will have them properly posted we send:

- (1.) Placards for the protection of birds.
- (2.) Placards for the protection of horses from docking and tight check-reins.

WHAT A DOCKED HORSE TELLS.

- (1.) That the owner does not care one straw for the suffering of dumb animals.
- (2.) That the owner does not care one straw for the good opinion of nine-tenths of his fellow-citizens who witness the effects of his cruelty.

"AFTER."

"There remaineth therefore a rest for the people of God."—Heb. 4:9.

After the toil and trouble there cometh a day of rest,
After the weary conflict, peace on the Saviour's breast.

After the care and sorrow, the glory of light and love,
After the wilderness journey, the Father's bright home above.

After the night of darkness, the shadows all flee away,

After the day of sadness, hope sheds her brightest ray,

After the strife and struggle, the victory is won,
After the work is over, the Master's own words, "Well done."

After the hours of chastening, the spirit made pure and bright,

After the earth's dark shadow, clear in the light of light,

After the guiding counsel, communion full and sweet,

After the willing service, all laid at the Savior's feet.

After the pain and sickness, the tears are all wiped away,

After the flowers are gathered, no more of earth's decay,

After the deep heart sorrow, an end of every strife,
After the daily crosses, a glorious crown of life.

ANGELL PRIZE CONTESTS.

A splendid way to raise money in schools, churches, Sunday-schools, or elsewhere for any object preferred.

ANGELL PRIZE CONTESTS IN HUMANE SPEAKING.

We have beautiful sterling silver medals, of which this cut shows the size and face inscriptions.

On the back is inscribed "The American Humane Education Society."

We sell them at one dollar each, which is just what we pay for them by the hundred.

Each is in a box on red velvet, and we make no charge for postage when sent by mail.

The plan is this: Some large church or public hall is secured, several schools or Sunday-schools are invited to send their best speaker or reciter to compete for the prize medal; some prominent citizen presides; other prominent citizens act as the committee of award, and a small admission fee, ten or twenty cents, pays all the costs, and leaves a handsome balance for the local humane society or "Band of Mercy," or school or Sunday-school or church or library or any other object preferred.

It is a splendid and easy way to raise money.

We have a book of 192 pages describing the plan and containing beautiful selections to be used by the speakers and reciters in these contests, which our "American Humane Education Society" sends to those who are going to contest, on receipt of six cents in postage stamps to pay postage; and to all others for sixteen cents in postage stamps, which is precisely what they cost us with postage.

Every school taking part wants to attend, so do parents and friends; good music is added, and a full audience is insured, and a very enthusiastic one, and for a week after, the merits of what was said and how it was said will be discussed, not only by children but by parents.

As before stated, these prize contests have been already recommended by the Master of the National Grange for all the Granges of our country—also by the National Superintendent of the Department of Mercy of the W. C. T. U., to be adopted by that organization all over the country, and they have attracted notice from the press as far off as London and Australia.

We have already considerable orders for both books and medals, and on our table are interesting accounts of their success, at one of which in Cleveland, Ohio, the Mayor of the city presided.

ANGELL PRIZE-SPEAKING CONTEST.

We are glad to be notified on this May 12th of the great success of one of these exhibitions at the Library Hall at West Hanover, Mass. Every seat filled—many obliged to stand—clergymen and others addressed the meeting—the audience very enthusiastic—other similar contests likely to follow.

Just before going to press we receive an account of a most successful prize contest in Manitou, Colorado.

In moving out of town don't forget your cat.

THE FINEST HORSE IN THE PROCESSION.

BUT JUST THEN THE FIRE ALARM SOUNDED.

THE PROMISED LAND.

So we sailed and sailed over stormy seas, till we came to a pleasant land,
Where forever were peace and happiness, and plenty was on each hand;
And no man wronged his brother there, for no man counted it gain
To live by the sweat of another's brow, or to joy at another's pain.

And the strong man there was a kindly man, and aided the one who was weak,
And for those who were simple and trusting men their wiser brothers would speak;
And creed, or color, or land, or birth, caused no man to hate another,
For the same red blood filled each man's veins, and every man was a brother.

And the old man there was a blessed man, for toilless he wanted nought,
And vice and toil on the little ones no longer their ruin wrought;
And the feeble in body and mind had there no longer a care for bread;
For out of the plenty that was for all, 'twas theirs the first to be fed.

And oh! but that land was a happy land for those who were sisters of men,
For them was no rude and unseemly toil, in field or in seater's den;
They pawned not body and soul for bread, for woman felt woman's shame,
And dearer than life to the strong man was the good of his sister's name.

And the fields were yellow with harvesting where every man might reap,
And the fishful rivers went singing down through that land to the mighty deep,
And the mountains were clothed with forests, and the orchards were ripe with fruit,
And the breath of the kine like incense arose in the meadows still green afoot.

And peace was forever in that fair land, for no man envied his mate,
And no man's treasures, where all were rich, woke his brother's sleeping hate,

And the kingdom that Christ had promised was now for all men to see,
And the name of that happy kingdom was,
"The land of the soon to be."

WHAT OUR [PROTESTANT] COLLEGES ARE TEACHING.

[From the Boston Evening Transcript of April 22.]

CANE RUSH AT DARTMOUTH.

The freshman-sophomore cane rush of the Dartmouth students occurred Wednesday. The freshmen far outnumbered the sophomores, but lost the rush after an hour of hard fighting. The struggle was waged with an almost suffocating crush. Several men had to be removed nearly exhausted. After the rush the campus was covered with torn clothing, and the class of '99 paraded the streets, obliging all freshmen to tip their hats.

If we were worth ten millions of dollars we would not give ten cents to one of these institutions where these things are encouraged or permitted. They are in direct conflict with all we are trying to teach in our over 28,000 "Bands of Mercy" and just the thing to send out into the world educated devils to curse not only the human but all the lower races whom we are trying to protect. GEO. T. ANGELL.

GET-YOUR-HAIR-CUT.

Into the house he came running,
And begged me to cut off his curls,
Over his head richly clustered,
As bright and as fair as a girl's.

"Why would you lose them, my darling?"
"Because our old hen," pouted he,
"Screams, when we meet, 'Get-your-hair-cut!'
Get-your-hair-cut!—I know she means me!"

GEORGE COOPER.

THE ANGELUS BIRD.

When traveling in the forests of Guiana and Paraguay, it is not uncommon to meet with a bird whose music greatly resembles that of an Angelus bell when heard from a distance. The Spaniards call this singular bird a bell-ringer, though it may be still more appropriately designated as the Angelus bird, for, like the Angelus bell, it is heard three times a day, morning, noon, and night. Its song, which defies all description, consists of sounds like the strokes of a bell, succeeding one another every two or three minutes, so clearly and in such a resonant manner, that the listener, if a stranger, imagines himself to be near a chapel or convent. But it turns out that the forest is the chapel, and the bell a bird.

The beauty of the Angelus bird is equal to his talent; he is as large as a jay, and as white as snow, besides being graceful in form and swift in motion. But the most curious ornament of the Angelus bird is the tuft of black, arched feathers on its beautiful head; it is of conical shape and about four inches in length. Guardian Angel.

RIGHT TO THE POINT.

A kind-hearted lady who has been posting our bird placards herself, personally, in a town near Boston, when she posted the first one attracted the attention of quite a little crowd of boys who were practicing with bows and arrows. They inquired of her what it meant about offering prizes of $5 and $10 for evidence to convict any one of killing birds or taking eggs from their nests.

She told them that if she could find out anybody that did it, the Society would give her $5 or $10, and Mr. Angell would give those that had been doing it something they didn't want. After a little talk the boys concluded that they wouldn't try to shoot any more birds.

$1000.

In behalf of "The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals," I offer One Thousand Dollars for evidence to convict ten persons in Massachusetts of violation of our State law by cruel vivisection—namely, One Hundred Dollars for evidence in each case.

"Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy."

GEO. T. ANGELL, President.

OUR MASSACHUSETTS LAW.

Relating to Vivisection in the Public Schools.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. No teacher or other person employed in any public school of this Commonwealth shall in the presence of any scholar, in said school, or any child or minor there present, practice vivisection, nor, in such presence, exhibit any animal upon which vivisection has been practised.

SECT. 2. Dissection of dead animals, or any portions thereof, in the public schools of this Commonwealth, in no instance shall be for the purpose of exhibition, but, in every case, shall be confined to the class-room and the presence of those pupils engaged in that study to be illustrated by such dissection.

SECT. 3. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

[Approved March 22, 1894.]

FALCONRY.

Some one sends us a Worcester (Mass.) Sunday Spy, setting forth that certain American women are attempting to introduce falconry for the purpose of hunting and killing our birds.

Falconry belongs to the same class as dog fighting, cock fighting, bull fighting, and the men and women who engage in it are not one whit better or more humane than dog fighters, cock fighters, bull fighters, and the men and women who cause their horses to be mutilated for life and [in the name of science] uselessly cut up dogs, cats and other animals in our colleges and schools.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

TO ALL CLERGYMEN IN THE UNITED STATES AND ELSEWHERE.

In the Sunday-school of a large church in Baltimore they have decided to secure a large number of subscriptions for Our Dumb Animals. The solicitor's commission, namely, twenty-five cents on each copy, to be given to aid in church work.

If in every Sunday-school of the United States the same plan should be adopted it would raise the circulation of Our Dumb Animals to millions, and at the same time raise in every Sunday-school a considerable amount of money to be used for church work or any other work that the Sunday-school may choose to give it to.

10,652.

Ten thousand six hundred and fifty-two murders were committed in the United States last year.

In what other country of the world is there greater need of humane education than ours?

KILLING FOR SPORT.

A pretty picture they make in the boat,
Drifting along by the river side;
He at the oars, while her fair white hand
Trolls at the stern in the ebbing tide.

Hark! for a rustling sound is heard;
A timid deer has come down to drink;
A gentle creature with great brown eyes,
Standing alert on the river's brink.

A bullet whistles along the air;
It has struck the beautiful arching neck;
The blood flows over the smooth, round breast,
And begins the silvery stream to fleck.

The creature struggles in agony,
Asking for help with appealing eyes;
Half-rising, she staggers and falls again,
Then mutely suffers, and slowly dies.

What heart could have wrought the cruel deed?
Who quenched the life of the harmless thing?
Alas! it was done by the fair white hand,
And simply for sport, this suffering.

The picture is spoiled in the drifting boat;
In the lovely foreground the deer lies slain;
The girl was thoughtless? but God forgive
The woman who ever causes pain.

SARAH K. BOLTON, in the Golden Rule.

HE REPENTED.

A story comes from New Haven about a black spaniel that abstracted a feather duster from his owner's house, and while playing with it tore out all the feathers. The dog, after being shown the featherless handle, was given a whipping. He then disappeared and about an hour afterward walked bravely into the house with a brand new duster in his mouth. He walked up to his mistress and meekly deposited the new brush at her feet. By the mark on it she saw that the dog had stolen it from a neighboring store.

STATUES.

The Massachusetts House of Representatives has voted $20,000 for a statue to General Banks. Suppose the advocates of statues to alleged great men should begin by putting their hands into their own pockets, not into that of the public?—Boston Pilot.

DOG ON WRECK.

The steamship "Munchen," of the North German Lloyd line, which reached port last night, brought with her the crew of the French fishing brigantine "Marie," which had been dismasted in a gale. The "Marie" was waterlogged and in a sinking condition when the "Munchen" sighted the craft.

The hero of the party was Noir, a shaggy Newfoundland. While the crew were dropping into the boats from the abandoned vessel, one of them fell overboard. In an instant Noir leaped into the water, and as the man rose he seized his blouse in his teeth, supporting him until his companions pulled him into the boat. Noir then scrambled in and wagged his tail happily, while the rescued seaman hugged him in a true French burst of gratitude.—New York Herald, April 29.

ANGORA KITTEN.

From Walnut Ridge Farm Office, 3 State St., Boston.

A FRIEND IN NEED IS A FRIEND INDEED.

A West Franklin (Me.) cat has just earned the gratitude of the family where she resides by jumping in the face of her mistress and so waking the family just as the room was filled with smoke and the plaster was beginning to fall from a fire overhead. By this act pussy is given credit for saving the lives of several persons.—Boston Herald, April 27th.

THE CAT IN ANCIENT TIMES.

The cat was very highly regarded in England at one time, both as a rat and mouse catcher, and as an ornament to society.

The ancient Egyptians treated cats with great distinction. It was a crime to kill them. The most prominent cats were upon death embalmed in drugs and spices, and cat mummies have been found side by side with those of kings. When Cambyses, the Persian, attacked the Egyptian city of Pelusis, he cunningly provided his soldiers with cats instead of shields. When the host advanced, the Egyptians retired in confusion upon discovering that they would be unable to do damage to their enemy without seriously imperiling the lives of vast numbers of cats. And so the city was taken easily. It cannot be disputed that the ancient Egyptian cats must have enjoyed life very much.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A FRIENDLY WALTZ.

DANCED BY A YOUNG LADY KITTEN AND HER CANINE ADMIRER.

Dogs are usually regarded as the bitterest enemies of cats, but a famous German animal trainer has recently introduced some clever tricks in which both cats and dogs play a part.

In one of the acts Miss Mimiise, the cat, goes to a ball and takes her place in a chair, as becomes a modest young lady kitten. In comes Mr. Follette, the dog, and with many bows and smiles invites her to dance a polka. Miss Mimiise bows bashfully and takes Mr. Follette's arms and they dance off together across the stage on their hind legs. Of course everyone cheers.—Chicago Record.

It is a pleasure for us to learn on this May 11th that the president of one of our leading colleges declares Our Dumb Animals to be "the best missionary paper ever printed." We will not deny the proposition.

WHAT IS THE OBJECT OF THE BANDS OF MERCY?

I answer: To teach and lead every child and older person to seize every opportunity to say a kind word or do a kind act that will make some other human being or some dumb creature happier.

GEO. T. ANGELL.

OUR KIND OF EDUCATION.

A kind friend brings us this cut showing what The Great Educator above represented proposes to teach the children and youth in our American schools.

Supplement to June, 1897, Our Dumb Animals.

PASTEUR — HYDROPHOBIA.

We have just received from the Illinois Anti-Vivisection Society a publication of eight pages, which seems to us to furnish the most overwhelming evidence of eminent physicians and others, that Pasteur after torturing, beyond the power of language to express, thousands of dogs and other animals — instead of curing hydrophobia only produced it or another disease very similar to it.

This seems to perfectly agree with the fact that since Pasteur inflicted these tortures, cases of so-called hydrophobia have enormously increased in France; while just across the river Rhine in Germany cases of hydrophobia have been almost unknown. Also that when a committee of the British House of Lords investigated the subject, taking the evidence of the highest medical authorities, it was clearly shown that true hydrophobia was the rarest of all diseases, so rare that it does not occur to one person in a million, and that very few doctors ever saw a case of it. But the publication in question gives overwhelming evidence, on the other hand, of the success of the "Buisson Hot Bath Treatment" of curing hydrophobia by profuse perspiration, in the various countries where it has been adopted.

We wish that every physician in America could read this pamphlet. Write the Illinois Anti-Vivisection Society, Aurora, Illinois.

"Professor Peter, the greatest clinician France has produced this century — a man described as the Sir William Gull, of Paris — declares 'M. Pasteur did not cure hydrophobia, he gave it.'"

"Dr. Buisson testifies as follows: 'In 1826 I discovered that it was possible both to prevent and to cure hydrophobia by means of baths—so-called Russian.'"

"The process by which Dr. Buisson cured himself was simply entering a vapor bath, or rather vapor chamber, heated to 127 degrees Fahrenheit, and remaining there until his symptoms disappeared; and then after a few hours repeating the remedy several times until all danger was gone.

"There are many cases of similar cures—not only of hydrophobia but of poisoning by snake bite and other toxic wounds. The theory is simply that the sweating (increased by hot drink) opens all the pores of the skin, and all poisonous matter in the blood or in surface wounds is forced out through the pores.

"The treatment is so simple it can be carried out in any home.

"The Buisson treatment can be applied in any house in the whole world to a person who may unfortunately have been bitten by a rabid dog. If there is no vapor bath in the locality seat the patient in a chair, under which place a pan of water over a lighted lamp. Wrap the patient in blankets and all danger of hydrophobia will be sweated out of him."

Dr. Charles W. Dulles, an eminent physician of Philadelphia, was appointed by the Pennsylvania Medical Society to investigate hydrophobia, and here is what he says:

"The number of cases of hydrophobia that occur in this country is happily small. It would doubtless be smaller still but for the exploitation of the Pasteur Institute, conducted by Gibier, in New York, and of its feeble imitator, conducted by Lagorio, in Chicago.

"The history of the last six years differs but little from that which I described to you in my last report. As then, so now, the number of deaths in France is greater than it was before. Pasteur just ten years ago (in May, 1884) boasted to a newspaper reporter: 'Whoever gets bitten by a mad dog has only to submit to my three little inoculations, and he need not have the slightest fear of hydrophobia.' The year before he made that boast there were four deaths from hydrophobia in Paris (the Department of the Seine); the year after, when he had practiced his preventive medicine for six months, the deaths from hydrophobia leaped at once from four to twenty-two.

"Pasteur's method has undoubtedly increased the number of deaths from hydrophobia. I have indicated what has taken place in France, and can assure you that there has been no diminution in the number of deaths from hydrophobia in any part of the world since Pasteur's infallible cures were inaugurated; and at the same time there has been added to these a large number of deaths due to inoculation with the virus of what ought to be called 'Pasteur's disease.'"

ANTI-TOXINE FOR DIPHTHERIA.

"One of the strongest arguments against the anti-toxine treatment of diphtheria is the attitude of those who are living in the hospitals and watching its results, who formerly were earnest advocates of the treatment, and who after experience have from conviction become opposed to it. Dr. William M. Welch (Municipal Hospital of Philadelphia), who has injected over 300 patients, stated that he would not have anti-toxine used on himself if he had diphtheria, that if his children had diphtheria of any type he would not allow them to be injected, and if left to act independently and from his own conviction he would never inject another patient."

"Dr. Warmuth, Dr. Tyler and Dr. Bemis (of the Municipal Hospital, Philadelphia), were believers in anti-toxine, and are now opposed to it. Dr. Hardin of Washington, and Dr. Levy of Richmond, came to the Willard Parker Hospital thorough believers in anti-toxine, and are now opposed to it. Dr. Warmuth had diphtheria and refused to have anti-toxine used on himself, likewise

Dr. Levy and Dr. Hess of the Willard Parker Hospital refused to have anti-toxine used.

"Not one of the nurses on the staff of these hospitals would have anti-toxine used on themselves for immunizing purposes. Varios states that the doctors and nurses of the Trousseau Hospital, Paris, would not have anti-toxine used for immunizing purposes, although one of the doctors had severe diphtheria."

ANTI-TOXINE.

"It has been said that I have been prejudiced against the use of anti-toxine. If there is a specific against diphtheria I want it. No member of this academy, no member of the profession in any portion of the world, needs it more than I do. I could not possibly have brought myself to the decision in which I find myself to-night had it not been for my strong conviction regarding the injurious effects of anti-toxine. It is because I believe that it is dangerous that my convictions compel me to speak. The time will come, gentlemen, when every member of this Academy will feel with relation to it as I do to-night, and you will come to my conviction, as various members have already done.

VIVISECTION IN ILLINOIS.

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO.

"The victims of vivisection include white mice and rats, frogs, pigeons, guinea-pigs, rabbits, cats, dogs, monkeys, goats, frequently horses—worn out in the service of man—also cows and calves."]

"We have not thought it wise to place any restriction upon experimentation involving prolonged or severe pain."

WM. R. HARPER,
Pres. University of Chicago.

The above is part of the reply of Dr. Harper to Dr. Ballou, of Providence, R. I., in answer to the inquiry whether vivisection was in any way limited or restricted in that institution.

EXTRACT FROM PUBLISHED ANNOUNCEMENT.

"UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO—Autumn Quarter (Assistant Professor Loeb): Original investigations in Physiology; Laboratory work in physiology of the sense organs and the nervous system. Winter Quarter: Laboratory work in the physiology of circulation, respiration and animal heat. Spring Quarter: Laboratory work in physiology of the nerves and muscles, and in general physiology. Summer Quarter: Physiological Demonstrations.† It is the aim of this course to give to teachers in the high schools and colleges an opportunity to become familiar with typical physiological experiments."—"Animals' Rights," p. 152.

1892 TO 1897.

[The following has been recently added to our Autobiographical Sketches.]

As this book made up to 1892 is quite large enough we cannot add another fifty pages to bring it up to 1897, but will simply say that the past five years have witnessed a wonderful growth of our work.

Our "Bands of Mercy" have grown from over eleven thousand to over twenty-eight thousand with well up toward two millions of members.

The circulation of "Black Beauty" in our own and European, and several Asiatic languages, is now probably over two millions copies—our prize story "Beautiful Joe" over two hundred thousand copies—our various other prize stories and new publications hundreds of thousands more—our offers for prize stories, essays, plans and evidence to convict too numerous to mention—"Our Dumb Animals" sent every month to [among others] not only nearly all professional men and a multitude of others in our own State, but also to all members of Congress, and every month to all Presidents of American Universities and Colleges and all newspapers and magazines in North America north of Mexico.

Any one who will undertake to read our annual reports of the last five years, published in each May number of "Our Dumb Animals," and the reports of the missionaries of our American Humane Education Society North, South, East and West, will get a birds' eye view of a growth which to properly estimate would require the reading of our paper from January, 1892, to the date of this writing, May, 1897.

Four times our life has come near ending—twice by drowning—once by the falling of a heavy block of ice from a high building—and last in January, 1894, by double pneumonia, from which the eminent specialist called in consultation declared that our recovery was beyond hope.

The following, which appeared in March, 1894, "Our Dumb Animals" while we were still unable to leave our home, tells the story:

MR. ANGELL'S SICKNESS.

The following, dictated by Mr. Angell, has been sent to various corresponding friends:

THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW OF DEATH.

Since last addressing our kind friends we have passed through the valley of the shadow of death, and but for the Infinite Goodness, would now be lying beneath the turf on a little hillside of Mount Auburn.

On January 6th, out of a perfectly clear sky of unusual good health, suddenly came upon us, without warning, like a black cyclone, "the grippe," and in a few hours, bereft of reason, attacked by pneumonia in both lungs, under the care of two physicians who thought our case almost hopeless, we lay panting and struggling for breath and life.

Our life has been spared, for how much longer we cannot tell, to carry on the battle to which it is gladly devoted.

We recognize that it is largely a battle of this world, to be fought as heretofore with worldly weapons, but if our friends should at any time hereafter sometimes think that our armor seems to resemble in some respects, somewhat more than heretofore, the panoply of a higher existence, they may know that through the long days and nights, when our

MEXICAN CHILDREN.

In Mexico, a group of lads from seven to twelve will meet and each boy will decorously lift his hat, and salutations of extreme courtesy will be exchanged, and then comes the boyish chatter, the run and the laughter, the same as anywhere. Boys here treat their elders with respect. An old man or woman is not the butt of the youth of Mexico; rather for the old people are reserved the shadiest seats under the trees in the park. A Mexican boy or girl on entering a room walks around among the company shaking hands with all, and on leaving the room does the same. Urbanity is taught in the public schools, as arithmetic is at home. There is no one jostled on the street; the best seat in a horse-car is promptly given up to the ladies, who never fail gracefully to acknowledge the favor. I have never seen a Mexican gentleman fail to give his seat to a woman, whether she was richly or poorly dressed.—Rural Home.

WHEN THE BIRDS ARE KILLED.

life hung trembling in the balance, thoughts have come to us which can never be forgotten until our final call by the angelus bells of eternity to pass from labor perhaps to perpetual adoration and prayer.

Nothing has touched us more deeply during our sickness than when told that the young ladies in one of our large educational institutions were in their prayer-meetings asking the Almighty to spare our life.

To all who in this time of our great trial and danger have remembered us in their thoughts and prayers we can only say, God bless you—God bless you all.

Some people do not believe in the efficacy of prayer.

On the other hand, millions on millions on millions of the holiest and best men and women of all ages, from the dawn of civilization to the present time, have believed as fully in the efficacy of prayer as they have in their own existence.

The happiest hours of a large part of the life of our own good mother were the two hours which she gave daily to silent, secret prayer, and you might as well have tried to convince her that the sun, moon and stars stood still in the heavens as to convince her that the Almighty did not listen to prayer.

We would be glad to have not only the prayers of all our humane friends and societies and "Bands of Mercy," but of all the good, both living and dead, who have power to pray.

Both our physicians thought our recovery almost a miracle—the older said that out of 375 persons in our condition at one time, he would have expected 374 to have died.

Out of many kind letters received during and immediately after our great peril, we will only give these:

From a friend in North Carolina, "Oh, that his life may be spared!" "How many are praying for this."

From another, "How many prayers were put up for your recovery you will never know."

From one of Boston's most honored citizens, "You have had my prayers."

From the wife of the Bishop of Maryland, "God made the shadow of death to pass over him," "thousands have prayed for him."

"The Lord heareth the prayer of the righteous."—Proverbs xv: 29.

"The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous and his ears are open to their cry."—Psalms xxxiv: 15.

"The fervent prayer of the righteous availeth much."—James v: 16.

"The prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up."—James v: 15.

"And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! How shall we do?"

16. And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

17. And Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha."—II Kings vi: 15 to 17 inclusive.

If the Bible is true then there are spiritual powers about us, and the fervent prayer of the righteous availeth much.

GEORGE T. ANGELL.

One thing we must never forget, namely: that the infinitely most important work for us is the humane education of the millions who are soon to come on the stage of action.

GEORGE T. ANGELL.

A PRAYER WORTH REMEMBERING.

Only a little longer let me stay,
For much remains undone,
Of victories, planned at break of day,
Few, few are won,
And now life's ardent noon fades fast away.

Only a little longer. Night draws near
When none may labor more.
Deep in my soul the hush I hear
Of evening's hour,
And weary, welcome the approaching hour.

I do not fear to see the shadows grow,
To feel the darkness spread;
To share their rest, who rest below—
The sacred dead,—
Or to explore the mysteries they know.

Beyond the night, the eternal soul awakes
To other, brighter day,
Death is but sleep, that gently takes
Life's load away,
And fits our powers renewed, new parts to play.

I think the force within can never cease,
That He from whom it came,
From earthly fetters can release
The imprisoned flame,
And, after trial, give His perfect peace—

That like white bird, whose tireless wings descend
From far up in the sky,
Skim the dull earth, then backward bend
Their flight on high.

The soul to life, stoops from eternity.
Yet would I leave, ere comes the final hour,
A worthier work behind—
Impress with print of keener power
The human mind—
A little longer labor for mankind.

ROBERT BLAKE, in Irish Monthly.

"OUR DUMB ANIMALS."

We never look over its beautiful illustrations and read its varied contents that we don't wish it was in the hands of every boy and girl in the land. There is nothing like it in the world. — Lewiston (Pa.) Free Press.
